

STUDENT PRINTMAKERS

The Royal Society of Painter-Printmakers (RE) is offering Associate Membership and £1000 each to two 2010 Printmaking Graduates.

The RE is based at Bankside Gallery, on the South Bank of the Thames next to Tate Modern – at the heart of an area that is rapidly expanding as a new centre for the visual arts. The RE is committed to exploring the whole spectrum of ideology and techniques involved in contemporary printmaking.

• Two student printmakers will be awarded free Associate Membership for two years, beginning in January 2011.

Benefits of being an Associate RE Member are:

- The Opportunity to Participate in RE Exhibitions
- Full rights of RE Associate Membership

• To help support the Student Associates in their work as printmakers, the successful applicants will also receive awards of £500 each year from the Gwen May Trust.

To apply for an RE Student Award: Send six JPEG images of your printmaking - with details of technique and size - a brief CV and a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Send applications to:

'RE Student Award', Bankside Gallery, 48 Hopton Street,
